2. Tiles need input to start computing correctly. DNA origami are a perfect way to do this.

Now we know how a molecular program knows when to stop growing... it can count!

But we still don't know about babies...